Jarnail

I have spoken to a few people regarding the three points raised by Izzy Hogg.

I am awaiting comments from Penny/Gareth at Fujitsu but the general consensus of opinion is that the points are too vague and more information is required exactly from the defence as to what they require.

Other guidance is required as per e-mail from Andrew Winn below in relation to Rod Ismay's comments.

Can you please advise.

Regards

John

Rod Ismay the head of P&BA is not happy at the prospect of an open ended invite. He has asked the question of what are the legal parameters we are working within. Simplistically if we refuse or impose conditions do we lose the case? I think we need more guidance on how something like this might reasonably operate.

I think Mark Burley would be the route into IT to identify who might be best placed to deal with that aspect.

I enclose a copy of an E-Mail received from Issy Hogg, the Defence Solicitors of the 22nd July 2010, the content of which is self explanatory. Could you please be kind enough to let me have your urgent instructions as to the access and information she is requesting in respect of the system in the Midlands and the operation at Chesterfield and the error logs. I will contact Gareth Jenkins to find out what transpired at the meeting with Charles McLachlan.

I await to hear from you.

Jarnail,

As a result of the meeting that took place between Charles McLachlan and Gareth Jenkins as directed by the judge, we now need to have:-

- access to the system in the Midlands where it appears there are live, reproducible errors.
- access to the operations at Chesterfield to understand how reconciliation and transaction corrections are dealt with.
- access to the system change requests, known error log and new release documentation to understand what problems have had to be fixed.

Please can you contact me with regard to these issues. Please can you respond via hannah@GRO as I will be on holiday from lunchtime today until 16th August. Hannah will ensure all your emails are responded to.

Regards,

Issy
