5. SHARE CAPITAL

- 5.01 The share capital of the Company is £50,000 divided into 50,000 Shares of £1 each.
- 5.32 Subject to the provisions of the Statutes relating to authority and to any directions which may be given either pursuant to Article 13.02 or by the Company in General Meeting, shares in the original capital of the Company and any shares hereafter created shall be under the control of the Hoard, which may allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons on such terms and at such times as the Board may think proper, provided that no shares shall be issued at a discount.
- 5.03 Without prejudice to any special rights attached to any existing shares, and subject to the provisions of the Statutes and of these Articles, any shares may be issued with such rights or restrictions as the Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution determine.
- 5.04 Except as otherwise expressly provided by these Articles or as required by law or as ordered by a Court of competent jurisdiction, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share on any trust, and (except as aforesaid) the Company shall not be bound by or recognise (even when having notice thereof) any interest in any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the holder.
- 5.05 Upon becoming the holder of any shares every member shall be entitled, without payment, to receive within two months after allotment or lodgment of a transfer (unless the conditions of issue provide for a longer interval) one certificate under the Seal for all the shares of each class registered in his name, specifying the number, class, and distinguishing numbers (if any) of the shares in respect of which it is issued and the amount or respective amounts paid up thereon.

- 5.06 Every certificate for shares or debentures or representing any other form of security of the Company shall, in accordance with Article 21, be issued under the Seal.
- 5.07 The Board may, in its absolute discretion, and without assigning any reason, refuse to register a transfer of any share.
- 5.08 In case of the death of a member his share shall forthwith be registered in the name of, or in the name of a nominee of, the Post Office.
- 5.09 The Company in General Meeting may from time to time:
 - (a) by Ordinary Resolution:
 - (1) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger nominal amount than its existing shares;
 - (11) cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled;
 - (iii) subject to the provisions of the Statutes, sub-divide its shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount and the resolution may determine that, as between the shares resulting from such sub-division, any of the shares may have any such preferred or other special rights over, or may have such deferred rights or be subject to any such restrictions as compared with, the others as the Company has power to attach to unissued or new shares;

- (b) subject to the provisions of the Statutes, by Special Resolution reduce its share capital or any capital redemption reserve or share premium account in any manner.
- 5.10 The Company in General Meeting may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution increase its share capital by the creation of new shares, such new capital to be of such amount and to be divided into shares of such respective amounts and to carry such special rights (if any) or to be subject to such restrictions (if any) as are referred to in Article 5.03 as the General Meeting resolving on such increase may prescribe.

6. GENERAL MEETING

- 6.01 The Company shall in each year hold a General Meeting as its Annual General Meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year. Not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting of the Company and that of the next. The Annual General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Board shall determine. All General Meetings, other than Annual General Meetings, shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.
- 6.02 The Board may call an Extraordinary General Meeting whenever it thinks fit, and Extraordinary General Meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or in default may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by section 368 of the Act. The Board shall on requisition proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting for a date not later than eight weeks after receipt of the requisition. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient members of the Board to convene a General Meeting any Director, or any member of the Company, may call a General Meeting.
- 6.03 In the case of an Annual General Meeting or of a meeting convened for the purpose of passing a Special Resolution, 21 clear days' notice at the least, and in any other case 14 clear days' notice at the least, specifying the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in the case of special business, the general nature of such business shall Le given in manner hereinafter mentioned to the Auditors, the Directors, all persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member, and to such persons as are under the provisions of these Articles entitled to receive notice of General Meetings from the Company, but with the consent of all persons for the time being entitled as aforesaid, or of such proportion thereof as is prescribed by section 369(3) of the Act, a meeting may be convened on a shorter notice, and in such manner as such persons may approve. The accidental omission to give such notice to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any such person shall not invalidate any resolution passed or proceeding had at any such meeting. Every notice convening an Annual General Meeting of the Company shall describe the meeting as an Annual General Meeting.

7. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 7.01 All business that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting shall be deemed special and all business that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall also be deemed special, with the exception of:
 - (a) declaring a dividend;
 - (b) the consideration of the accounts and balance sheet and the reports of the Directors and the Auditors and any other documents required to be annexed to the balance sheet;
 - (c) the election of Directors;
 - (d) the fixing of any fees payable to the Directors;
 - (e) the re-appointment of the Auditors retiring (unless they were last appointed otherwise than by the Company in General Meeting) and the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors or the determining of the manner in which such remuneration is to be fixed; and

ş

- (f) the taking of authority by the Board to allot relevant securities pursuant to section 80 of the Act.
- 7.02 No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a vorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. For all purposes the quorum shall be not less than 2 members entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a member or a proxy for a member or a duly authorised representative of a corporation.
- 7.03 The Chairman (if any) of the Board shall preside at every General Meeting of the Company. If there be no such Chairman or if at any meeting he shall not be present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the same the Directors present shall choose one of their number to act, or if there be only one Director present he shall be Chairman.
- 7.04 A Director shall, notwithstanding that he is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any General Meeting.
- 7.05 The Chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time (or sine die) and from place to place as the meeting shall determine. Where a meeting is adjourned sine die the time and place for the adjourned meeting shall be fixed by the Board. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more or sine die, 7 clear days' notice at the least, specifying the place, the day, and the hour of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted shall be given in the same manner as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, no member shall be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

8. VOTES OF MEMBERS

- 8.01 Subject and without prejudice to any rights or restrictions as to voting for the time being attached to any class of shares for the time being forming part of the capital of the Company, at any General Meeting on a show of hands every member who (being an individual) is present in person or (being a corporation) is present by proxy or by a representative duly authorised under section 375 of the Act, not being himself a member entitled to vote, shall have one vote, and on a poll every member present in person, by representative or by proxy shall have one vote for every share of any class of which he is the holder.
- 8.02 On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.
- 8.03 Any person (whether a member of the Company or not) may be appointed to act as a proxy.
- 8.04 Any corporation which is a member of the Company may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company, or at any meeting of any class of members of the Company, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company.
- 8.05 A resolution in writing executed by or on behalf of each member who would have been entitled to vote upon it if it had been proposed at a general meeting at which he was present shall be as effectual as if it had been passed at a general meeting duly convened and held and may consist of several instruments in the like form each executed by or on behalf of one or more members. A resolution in writing in accordance with this Article 8.05 shall be deemed to have been duly executed on behalf of a corporation if signed by one of its directors or its secretary. In the case of a share held by joint holders the signature of any one of them shall be sufficient for the purposes of this Article.

9. DIRECTORS

- 9.01 Unless otherwise determined by Ordinary Resolution the number of Directors shall not be less than 2 nor more than 20.
- 9.02 A Director shall not be required to hold any qualification shares.
- 9.03 Each Director shall be either an "A" Director or a "B" Director. A Director shall be an "A" Director if the Post Office shall so specify in the instrument of appointment or shall otherwise so direct and all other Directors shall be "B" Directors.

10. DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

- 10.01 The Directors shall be entitled to receive by way of fees for their services in each year such sum (if any) as the Company in General Meeting shall from time to time determine, such sum (unless otherwise directed by the resolution by which it is voted) to be divided among the Directors in such proportions and in such manner as the Board may agree and failing agreement equally, except that in such event any Director holding office for less than the whole of the relevant period in respect of which the fees are paid shall only rank in such division in proportion to the time during such period for which he has held office.
- 10.02 The Directors shall also be entitled to be repaid all travelling and hotel expenses incurred by them respectively in or about the performance of their duties as Directors, including their expenses of travelling to and from Board Meetings, Committee Meetings or General Meetings or separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the Company or otherwise incurred while engaged on the business of the Company.
- 10.03 If, by arrangement with the Board, any Director shall perform or render any special duties or services outside his ordinary duties as a Director, the Board may pay him special remuneration, in addition to any fees or ordinary remuneration, and such special remuneration may be by a lump sum or by way of salary, commission, participation in profits or otherwise as may be arranged, and shall be charged as part of the Company's ordinary working expenses.

11. APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

- 11.01 Subject to Article 9.01, but without prejudice to the powers of the Company under section 303 of the Act to remove a Director by Ordinary Resolution, the Post Office shall have the power from time to time by Instrument to appoint any person or persons as a Director or Directors and to remove from office any Director howsoever appointed.
- 11.02 The office of a Director shall be vacated if:
 - (a) a receiving order is made against him or he makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally; or
 - (b) he ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provisions of the Statutes or thereunder or he becomes prohibited by law from being a Director; or
 - (c) by notice in writing to the Company he resigns his office; or
 - (d) he is removed from office under Article 11.01.

12. DIRECTOR CONTRACTING WITH THE COMPANY

12.01 A Director who is in any way directly or indirectly interested in a contract or other arrangement made or proposed to be made by the Company, or in a contract made or proposed to be made by a subsidiary of the Company which is brought up for consideration by the Company shall disclose the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Board; and the disclosure shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting, and the Director shall not take any part in any deliberation or decision of the Board with respect to that contract or arrangement.

- 12.02 For the purposes of Article 12.01, a general notice given at a meeting of the Board by a Director to the effect that he is a member of a specified company or firm and is to be regarded as interested in any contract or arrangement which may, after the date of the notice, be made with the company or firm, shall be regarded as a sufficient disclosure of his interest in relation to any contract or arrangement so made or proposed to be so made.
- 12.03 A Director need not attend in person at a masting of the Board in order to make a disclosure which he is required to make under this Article 12 if he takes reasonable steps to secure that the disclosure is made by a notice which is brought up and read at the meeting.
- 12.04 A Director shall (in the absence of some other material interest than is indicated below) be entitled to vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of any resolution concerning any of the following matters, namely:
 - (a) any proposal concerning the adoption, modification or operation of a superannuation fund or scheme or retirement, death or disability benefits schemes under which he may benefit and which has been approved by or is subject to and conditional on approval by the Board of Inland Revenue for taxation purposes;
 - (b) any contract or arrangement with the Post Office or any subsidiary of the Post Office (other than the Company or a subsidiary of the Company).
- 12.05 If any question shall arise at any meeting as to the materiality of a Director's interest or as to the entitlement of any Director to vote and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting, such question shall be referred to the Chairman of the meeting and his ruling shall be final and conclusive, except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of the Director concerned has not been fairly disclosed.

- 12.06 Subject to the provisions of the Statutes the Company may, by Ordinary Resolution, suspend or relax the provisions of this Article 12 to any extent, either generally or in respect of any particular matter, or ratify any transaction not duly authorised by reason of a contravention of this Article.
- 12.07 A Director may be or become a director or other officer of, or otherwise interested in, any company promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as shareholder or otherwise, and such Director shall be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefits received by him as a director or officer of, or from his interest in, such other company unless the Company otherwise directs.
- 12.08 For the purpose of this Article 12 an interest of a person who is, for the purpose of the Statutes (excluding any statutory modification thereof not in force when this Article becomes binding on the Company), connected within the meaning of section 346 of the Act with a Director shall be treated as an interest of the Director.

13. POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

Subject as provided in these Articles, the business of the Company 13.01 shall be managed by the Board, which may exercise all such powers of the Company and do, on behalf of the Company, all such acts as may be exercised and done by the Company and as are not by the Statutes or by these Articles required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Statutes, the Memorandum of Association of the Company and of these Articles and to any directions given by Special Resolution or pursuant to Article 13.02, but no alteration of the Memorandum of Association of the Company or of these Articles nor any such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if such alteration had not been made or if such direction had not been given.
