Andy

Martin has asked me to update you this week on his behalf.

This week has been eventful. We had a meeting with the QC on Monday. Since then we have considered carefully the recommendations which he has made, reconciled our spreadsheet and have considered other ways in which our spreadsheet should be amended. We have restarted the sift review process and the most recent table of statistics is attached.

During our meeting in London with Susan, Rodric and Jarnail it was decided that the Samra case should not at this stage be terminated.

We have also made arrangements to have preliminary discussions with a potential expert.

Kind regards

Laura
