Subject: Post Office Group Litigation - Draft Judgment

Dear all,

Please find attached the draft Judgment with the exception of Part M – Final Section, which is currently being drafted. This will not be ready for a few days and will be circulated in draft form when it is ready.

The reason for distributing now is because, as set out in the reasons provided by the Single Lord Justice when he dismissed the Permission to Appeal Application, the court is aware that 28th and 29th November are being used by the parties to meet to discuss the litigation going forward.

There will also be some further, isolated changes to the draft, including some limited reference to submissions.

Parties are asked to note specifically the embargo and are requested to send an email (as occurred last time in March 2019) before this can be provided to the two (only) members of the steering committee.

The Technical Appendix does not have any diagrams inserted yet and this exercise is also underway. The Trial Bundle references are however provided in this draft.

Kind regards

Angela Fraser
