Rodric

Sorry about the phone failures yesterday!

In short, Brian looks like the right man for the job. In my view he was very impressive.

He's clearly undertaken this type of exercise before and is very live to the political dimension.

Big question - is Brian's work private advice for POL or an independent assessment of POL's criminal law position? One for us all to think about.

Short term - Brian is going to assist with the response to the CCRC. He may also give a preliminary view on the CK review protocol.

Longer term - we need to draw up some terms of reference for his work. Gavin and I will have a first stab at this and then circulate this to the team.

Kind regards
Andy
