Hi

Please can we think of ways of building the lines below in relation to my points in caps:

- We are concerned at the length of time it is taking to investigate cases and we want to complete this process quickly so that applicants can fully understand what happened in their case. [SO? YOU MADE YOUR BED, LIE ON IT]
- Having investigated 26 of the 70 cases submitted it has now become clear that the Scheme will not work in the interests of those who have submitted cases [WHY?]

Thanks for capturing – as discussed I think this will be helpful to give them a thorough understanding of the Horizon landscape.

I think we have quite a bit of this info already but it would be great if we could get it over to Craig at Brunswick just before the 4.30 meeting.

Thank you

Nina
