

Exhibit 014 to the First Witness Statement of Darren Heilig
Table showing entity names over time

The table below shows the name changes relevant to the following three principal entities in the Royal Mail Group up until the initial public offering of Royal Mail: 1. the company that was the main holding company of the Royal Mail and Post Office business (indicated in the top row as the Holding Company), 2. the entity that was the main trading company for the Royal Mail business (indicated in the top row as Royal Mail Group Limited) and 3. the entity that was the main trading entity for the Post Office business (indicated in the top row as Post Office Limited).

YEAR	DATE AND MONTH	THE HOLDING COMPANY (Company No. 04074919)	ROYAL MAIL GROUP LIMITED (Company No. 04138203)	POST OFFICE LIMITED (Company No. 02154540)
1987	13 August			Post Office Counters Ltd is incorporated
2000	20 September	Expandreserve Public Limited Company is incorporated
	12 December	Name change from Expandreserve plc to The Post Office Group plc
2001	4 January	Name change from Post Office Group plc to Consignia plc
	10 January		Trushelfco (No.2758) Ltd is incorporated
	26 January	Name change from Consignia plc to Consignia Holdings plc	Re-registration from private to public limited company. Name change from Trushelfco (No.2758) Ltd to Consignia plc
	1 October			Name change from Post Office Counters to Post Office Limited
2002	4 November	Name change from Consignia Holdings plc to	Name change from Consignia plc to Royal Mail

		Royal Mail Holdings plc	Group plc
2007	20 March		Re-registration as a private company and name change from Royal Mail Group plc to Royal Mail Group Limited
2013	11 September	Name change from Royal Mail Holdings plc to Postal Services Holding Company plc
	12 December	Re-registration as a private company and name change from Postal Services Holding Company plc to Postal Services Holding Company Limited		