Hi Calum

Just had a phone call from Mark Daniels.

We really need to talk about this. You won't know half of the story surrounding Dalmellington yet but one of the most important points that has come out of it has been POL's refusal to inform the network that this type of problem can occur.

Seema Misra was sent to prison for falsifying accounts and the Judge specifically noted that if the computer caused the shortfall in the accounts then she should have noticed. Pretty difficult when POL know about these problems and don't tell you what to look for.

Please - this is so important for all remaining SPMRs and new entrants.

My numbers are [REDACTED] or Mobile: [REDACTED]

Cheers, Tim

Hi Tim,

Postmaster is so confident in the future of the Post Office that he is willing to take this opportunity to retire.

Calum

Everyone wants a Post Office but no-one wants to pay for it
