PACE was def their strongest angle! So now apart from debate:

- "feudal contracts" allegation to paint picture of bullying and intimidation forcing people into false accounting
- keeping it current with serving postmaster talking of fear (and contracts expert)

And they have the QC casting doubt over cases (although v qualified from what we have seen)

Much weaker unless they haven't told us something

To see - they have dropped the issue around cautions and PACE.

I'd like to think about how we can chop away further or do we leave this now? I am struggling to see what new line they have beyond pegging it to the parliamentary debate.

Any thoughts?

Mark

Thank you for your reply. I can confirm that because of the complexities surrounding how subpostmasters are interviewed when concerns are raised about missing funds this will not now be covered in our One Show film. However this is an area that we would like to return to in future broadcasts as the mediation progresses and it would be helpful to discuss this at greater length once the Wednesday programming is complete.

I attach the answers to the questions you have raised with us and also a short statement, for use in full please, in the film.
Please let me know if you need clarification about any of the information.

Thanks
