I'll do an email on this. It's ridiculous. I asked weeks ago for a timetable to take this forward. I also told Martin to fix a date for the meeting this week before we're both away.

Jane is getting tetchy with them too, and asked me to put together an email highlighting all the things they're doing for us and the time it's taking. I'll finish that tomorrow - could I run it by you for your views?

Subject: RE: Meeting with the experts - 14th July ?

Jessica,

Rodric, Simon Clarke and I previously agreed that it would be useful to have a meeting with the experts in order to kick start the report process and bring it back on track. We suspected that POL IT and/or Fujitsu had provided the experts with information directly and in those circumstances neither POL nor ourselves had an exhaustive list of the material provided.

Given the nature of the material which the experts are believed to have seen and the counter training which they are understood to have also received, it is hoped that the experts may be able to provide preliminary views with regard to the system and comment/observations with regard to the remaining work to be carried out.

I have heard from Rodric that he will be away until 23rd July. Would you like me to make arrangements for the meeting to take place following his return?

Kind regards,

Martin.

Martin Smith

I can do 14 July but not 21/22 July. Can you confirm what we would be discussing with them please?

Many thanks

Dear Rodric and Jessica,

I would be grateful if you could let me know whether you would be able to meet the experts on 14th July – if so I will confirm the position with ICL before other commitments are put in the experts diaries.

If 14th July is not a possibility, I understand that both experts are currently available on 21st and 22nd July.

Kind regards,

Martin

Dear Rodric and Jessica

I understand that both Prof. Kramer and Dr. Dulay would be able to attend a meeting on 14th July 2015. Could you please let me know whether you are both free on that date and if so, whether you have any existing commitments which we will need to work around?

So far as the location of the meeting is concerned, could this take place at POL?

Kind regards,

Martin.
