Continuation Statement of Adam Shaw

£86.79 was due to a surplus in the foreign currency. I now produce a schedule detailing the state of the accounts as item AS/1.

Mrs Hutchings confirmed that our figures were correct but did not offer any explanation as to why the Post Office accounts were showing a deficit of £9,743.76. Mrs Hutchings did not make good any part of the deficit at the time and as such the amount of £9,743.76 was posted to what is known as Late Account.

I relayed my findings to Mr Nigel Allen, Contracts Advisor who precautionary suspended Mrs Hutchings.
